

Measure 1- Length of Time Homeless

1a. Expand short-term housing for individuals who have a lower vulnerability score on the community queue for shorter wait times through engaging in dynamic prioritization.

1b. Increase housing that integrates behavioral health and treatment services into the design for the segment of the homeless population that experiences substance use disorder.

1c. Expand rapid rehousing projects.

1d. Provide a holistic client-centered approach by increasing access to additional supports.

1e. Increase permanent housing for Individuals and families fleeing domestic violence.

Measure 2- Exit Homelessness to Permanent Destinations

2a. Increase the number of permanent supportive housing resources.

2b. Expand peer to peer support for a client-centered approach to help navigate services.

2c. Establish best practices to promote housemate pairing and expand the shared housing model.

2d. Promote housing supports for seniors and families on a fixed income to help sustain housing.

Measure 3- Number of Homeless Persons

3a. Increase community inventory for safe and affordable housing.

3b. Engage in acquisition and rehabilitation projects to increase the number of available, affordable housing units.

Measure 4: Employment and Income Growth

4a. Expand innovative employment supports to help increase earned income.

Measure 5 – Persons who Become Homeless for the First Time

5a. Expand diversion strategies to support keeping households from entering homelessness.

5b. Expand housing problem solving conversations to help guide and support the client.

Measure 6: Homeless Prevention

6b. Increase early access to preventative services to prevent individuals from entering the homeless system of care.

6c. Promote messaging around homeless services to raise awareness and increase accessibility.

Measure 7 – Successful Placement from Street Outreach and Placement in/or Retention of Permanent Housing

7a. Expand Street outreach efforts to increase awareness and referrals for housing services and other supports.

