

Kevin Murray

Kevin Murray is the Manager of Housing & Justice Systems at SilverSummit Healthplan, where he leads efforts to integrate healthcare with housing and justice sectors, focusing on re-entry, diversion, and housing stability. He works closely with judicial, community, and state partners to streamline services like emergency shelter access, eviction prevention, and utility assistance.

With a background in community mental health counseling and clinical experience in outpatient, residential, and detox settings, Kevin brings a holistic approach to improving health and housing outcomes. He holds a B.A. in History and an M.S. in Community Mental Health Counseling from Canisius University.

In 2024, Kevin was elected to the Southern Nevada Homeless Continuum of Care Board, following years of active community involvement. Outside of work, he enjoys strategy games, outdoor adventures, and family road trips with his wife and two children.
