

Elizabeth Jarman

Elizabeth “Liz” Jarman, LCSW graduated from Texas Christian University in 2001 with her Bachelor’s of Science in Social Work. She then attended University of Washington, Seattle, where she graduated with her Masters of Social Work in 2002. She became a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in 2008. Prior to joining VA, she worked in public, private, and non-profit settings. Liz joined the VA Southern NV Healthcare System in 2016 as a HUD-VASH Social Worker. She became a HUD-VASH Supervisor in May 2018 and then Community Resource and Referral Center’s (CRRC) Program Coordinator in December of 2020. She currently supervises the CRRC, Veteran’s Justice Program, Healthcare for Homeless Veterans Case Management, CRRC Street Outreach teams, and the new Homeless Patient Aligned Care Team Mobile Medical Unit. She serves on the Veteran Food Security Committee and is also a board member of the Southern Nevada Continuum of Care.

Liz is the granddaughter of a veteran and is passionate about working with unhoused veterans and working towards process improvements. She is a mother to 2 small children.

