

2.04: Welcome people in, bring people home: Shelter practices that work

Jennifer Watkins

Crossroads Rhode Island

Marybeth Adkins

Family Crisis Support Services

Michele Conderino

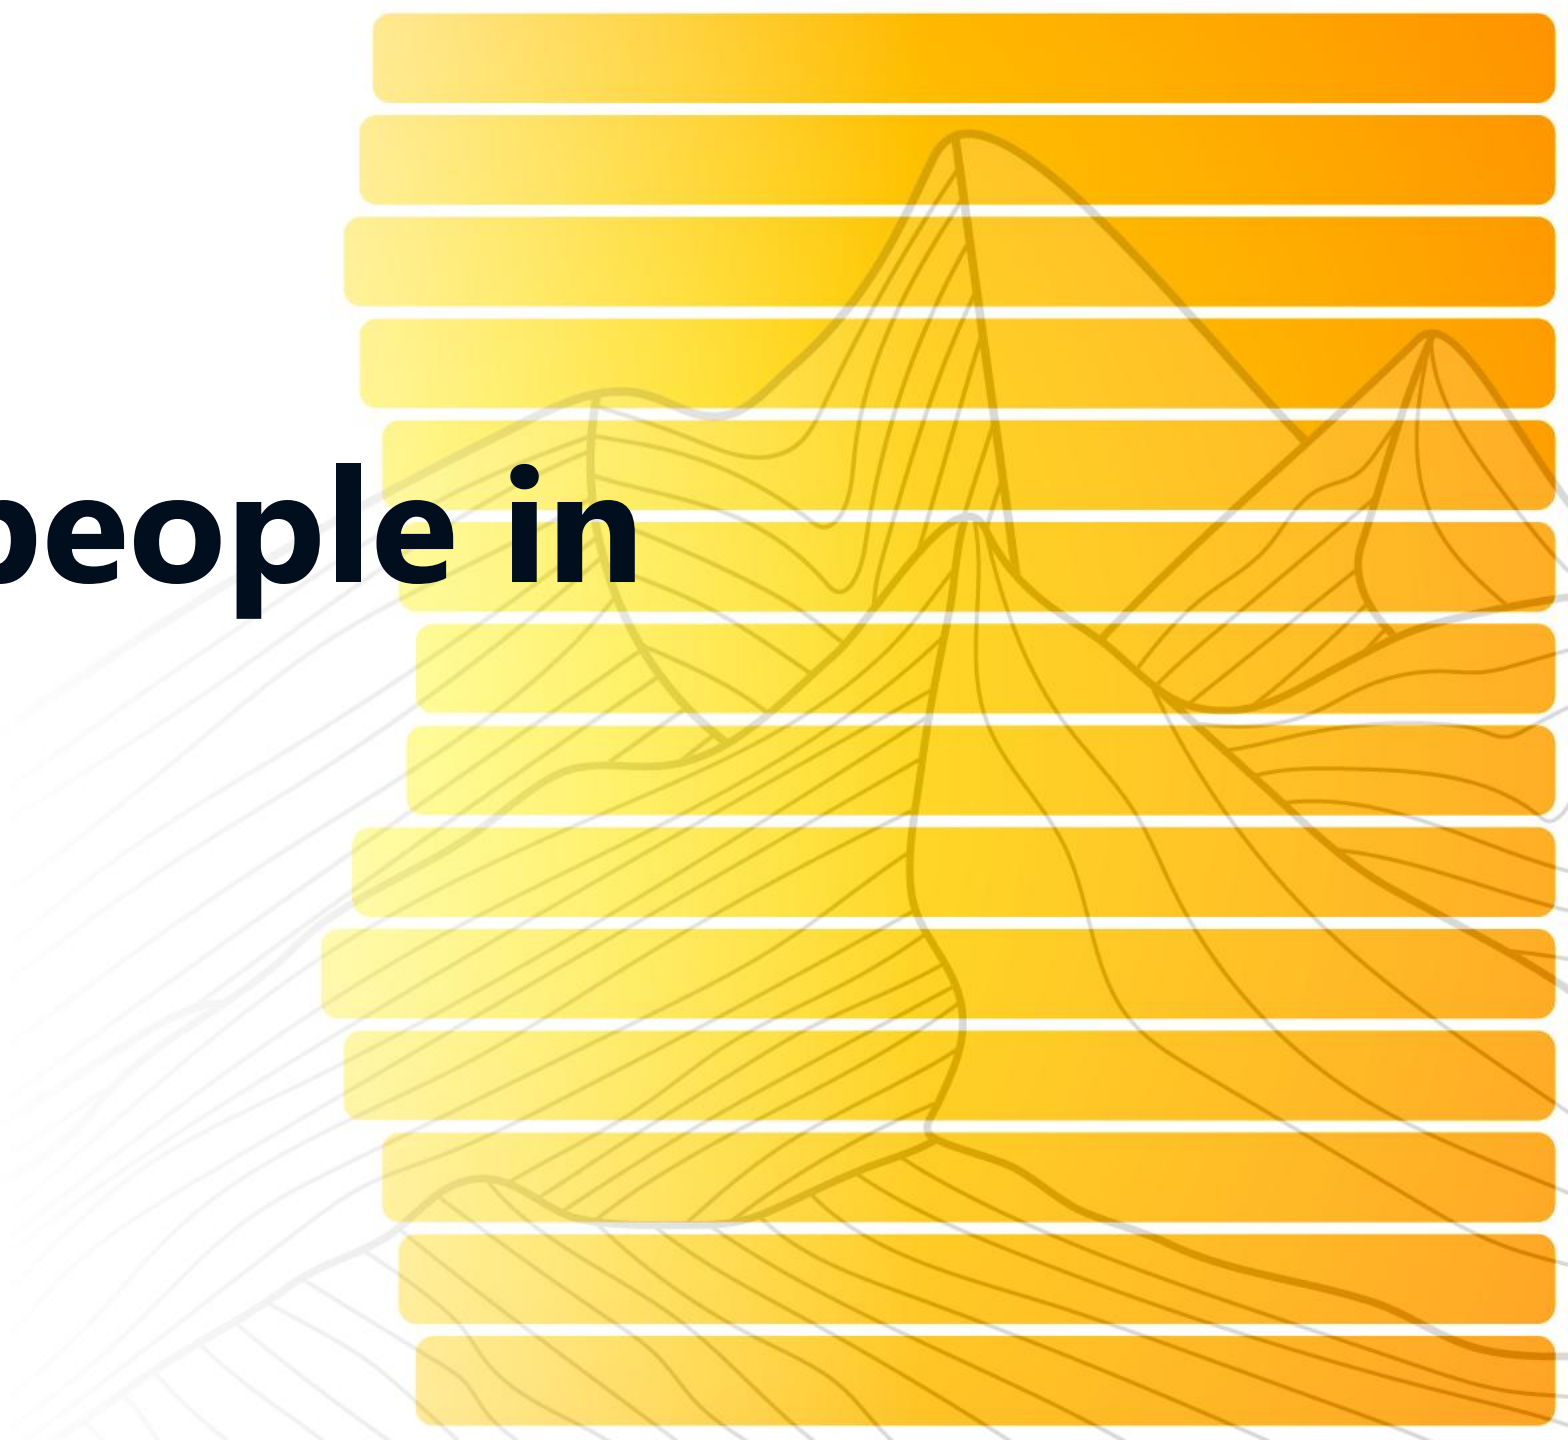

Open Doors, CT

Shelter is a vital part of the homeless response system, but only if people can access it when they need it and use it as a launchpad to get housed. Learn concrete strategies for improving access and focusing on housing from practitioners who've accomplished those goals in their own shelter programs.

Welcome people in

- Lower barriers to entry
- Incorporate participant feedback
- Make your shelter a place people say yes to

Bring people home

- Train all staff to have housing-focused conversations
- Guide shelter participants to make housing plans
- Combine housing resources with appropriate supports for stability

Let's talk.

