

Conflict of Interest Acknowledgement

As a member of the Southern Nevada Homelessness Continuum of Care Board, I recognize that I have an ethical and legal obligation to act in the best interests of the organization. I understand that conflicts of interest may arise from time to time and that it is my duty to disclose such conflicts and avoid any participation in decisions where I have a personal interest.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs when a board member, or someone with whom the board member has a close relationship (such as a family member or business associate), has a financial or other personal interest that could improperly influence—or appear to influence—their decisions on behalf of the organization.

Examples of Conflicts May Include (but are not limited to):

- Having a financial interest in a company doing business with the organization.
- Accepting gifts or favors from individuals or companies that do business with the organization.
- Using organizational resources for personal or commercial gain.
- Employing or recommending relatives for paid positions within the organization.

Disclosure and Recusal

I agree to:

- Disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest to the Board in a timely manner.
- Recuse myself from any board discussions or votes where I have a conflict of interest.
- Submit an updated conflict of interest disclosure form annually and as circumstances change.

Acknowledgment

I have read and understand the Conflict of Interest Policy and this statement. I agree to comply fully with its terms and to act in the best interests of the Southern Nevada Homelessness Continuum of Care at all times.
